

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study is to investigate the perceptions of the school community - principals and educators as well-in the school units of the greek primary education with reference to crisis management in the school's workplace , scrutinizing comparatively the situation by using anonymous questionnaire especially adjusted to the initiative of the study and answered by 734 principals and educators in a nationwide level during the school year 2016,from March to June 2017.

This study tries to focus on the ways and means of treatments and repressions of the dangers and crisis which occur in the school units of the greek primary education aiming to the effective prevention and treatment of these situations and the creation of a safe school environment totally harmonized with the European school standards.

Due to the given answers, we draw useful conclusions regarding with the specific parameters of this study and especially: the emotional situation of the school membership , their possible education as fas as the school crisis's management is concerned, their possible cooperation with parents , their communication with means of communication, in order to understand the reaction of the school membership in a time which we observe a rapid increasement of violent outbreaks and an infringing behavior of students as it particularly appears( injuries, phycological blackmails, threats, bullying).

The quote of the applicable legislation and courts' rulings will strongly support to an outcome of useful conclusions and a constructive discussion in the future.